Appellant Perry H. filed a timely appeal from an adverse order in proceedings brought pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 300. This court appointed appellate counsel. On August 18, 1997, appointed counsel filed a "STATEMENT PER IN RE SADE C. (1996) 13 CAL.4TH 952" asking this court independently to review the record and to extend time for appellant personally to file a supplemental brief. By order filed August 19, 1997, we extended time for appellant personally to file a brief until September 19, 1997, explained we would not independently review the record, and stated "If no brief is filed within the time specified in this order or as extended for exceptional good cause shown the appeal may be dismissed."
